

A service of Dunwoody College of Technology

Weatherization Insulation Installer Training (3-day)

Course Details

The three day Weatherization Insulation Installer training program is an application intensive training focused on techniques currently demonstrated by practicing weatherization technicians towards reducing energy costs by improving energy efficiency of residential dwellings. This course, which is taught both on-site and on-location, provides training for employees or contractors who are on the ground weatherizing homes on a daily basis.

Prerequisites

- Posses a working knowledge of principles of air movement and heat loss

Availability: Space is limited to 8 people.

Curriculum

- Principles of Air, Heat and Moisture Flow
- Ventilation
- Air & Duct Sealing
- Foundation, Floor, Wall & Attic Insulation

Materials Required

Training materials will be provided. Required materials that are not provided (please bring these items with you to class on day 1):

- Clipboard/Pens/Pencils
- Calculator
- Tape Measure

PLEASE BE DRESSED APPROPRIATELY FOR FIELD WORK

Class Hours

Class runs from 8:00 – 4:30 p.m for the three day training. There will be an off-site hands on component to the training that you will need to transport yourself to.

Course Cost: $775.00

Accepted Payment

- Visa/Mastercard/Discover/American Express
- Purchase Order: Must provide purchase order number at the time of registration.
- Voucher: Voucher must be received in our office prior to registering. Vouchers can be faxed to (612) 374-3332.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation deadline is 7 calendar days prior to the scheduled class start date for a full refund. You must cancel your registration either by notifying us in writing of your intent to cancel or by cancelling through the on-line registration system that you signed up through.

For additional information, please contact Kris Caldwell kcaldwell@dunwoody.edu or 612-381-3098.